

Privacy policy and cookies

This privacy policy has been compiled to better serve those who are concerned with how their 'Personally identifiable information' (PII) is being used online. In our privacy policy we adhere to the principles of privacy laws and information security, as well as common international principles that allow us to keep our users' personal information safe. PII is considered information that can be used on its own or with other information to identify, contact, or locate a single person, or to identify an individual in context. Please read our privacy policy carefully to get a clear understanding of how we collect, use, protect or otherwise handle your PII in accordance with our website.

What personal information do we collect from the people?

When ordering or registering on our site, as appropriate, you may be asked to enter your name, phone number, e-mail address, mailing address or other details to help you with your experience. We only collect information that is necessary for our service best operation. According to your regional laws, we do not save nor publish any of your personal data unless you are above the age allowed by the law or your parents or guardians have given their consent for us to do so.

When do we collect information?

We collect information from you when you go through a registration or enter your personal data when using our application or website.

How do we use your information?

We may use the information we collect from you when you register, make a purchase, sign up for our newsletter, respond to a survey or marketing communication, surf the website, or use certain other site features in the following ways:

- To personalize user's experience and to allow us to deliver the type of content and product offerings in which you are most interested.
- To improve our services in order to better serve you.

- To quickly process your transactions.
- To send e-mails regarding your orders or other products and services.

How do we protect visitor information?

We use regular malware scanning. Your personal information is contained behind secured networks and is only accessible by a limited number of persons who have special access rights to such systems, and are required to keep the information confidential. In addition, all sensitive/credit information you supply is encrypted via Secure Socket Layer (SSL) technology.

We implement a variety of security measures when a user places an order enters, submits, or accesses their information to maintain the safety of your personal information.

All transactions are processed through a gateway provider and are not stored or processed on our servers.

How we use cookies

Yes. Cookies are small files that a site or its service provider transfers to your computer's hard drive through your Web browser (if you allow) that enables the site's or service provider's systems to recognize your browser and capture and remember certain information. For instance, we use cookies to help us remember and process the items in your shopping cart. They are also used to help us understand your preferences based on previous or current site activity, which enables us to provide you with improved services. We also use cookies to help us compile aggregate data about site traffic and site interaction so that we can offer better site experiences and tools in the future.

If we need to use cookie, we will ask you for your consent to use it in order to maintain signing in process, understand and save user's preferences for future visits.

You can choose to have your computer warn you each time a cookie is being sent, or you can choose to turn off all cookies. You do this through your browser (like Internet Explorer) settings. Each browser is a little different, so look at your browser's Help menu to learn the correct way to modify your cookies.

If you disable cookies off, some features will be disabled. It may turn off some of the features that make your site experience more efficient and some of our services will not function properly.

Third party disclosure

We do not sell, trade, or otherwise transfer to outside parties your personally identifiable information unless we provide you with advance notice. This does not include website hosting partners and other parties who assist us in operating our website, conducting our business, or servicing you, so long as those parties agree to keep this information confidential. We may also release your information when we believe release is appropriate to comply with the law, enforce our site policies, or protect ours or others' rights, property, or safety.

However, non-personally identifiable visitor information may be provided to other parties for marketing, advertising, or other uses.

Occasionally, at our discretion, we may include or offer third party products or services on our website. These third party sites have separate and independent privacy policies. We therefore have no responsibility or liability for the content and activities of these linked sites. Nonetheless, we seek to protect the integrity of our site and welcome any feedback about these sites.

Information for parents (children under 13 or another age according to local laws)

In our applications, when it comes to the collection of personal information from children, the principles of local Children's Privacy Protection put parents in control. We market to and collect information from children under 13 (or other ages determined by local laws) provided there is a consent received from their parents. In order to remove your child's information please contact us at info@stim.media

We will not require a child to disclose more information than is reasonably necessary to participate in an activity. Parents can review their child's personal information, direct us to delete it, and refuse to allow any further collection or use of the child's information. Parents can agree to the collection and use of their child's information, but still NOT allow disclosure to third parties unless that's part of the service. Parents can review, delete, manage or refuse with whom their child's information is shared through through E-mailing our support staff contacting us directly.

We will notify parents directly before collecting PII from their kids. Meanwhile, according to our terms, when a parent registers their child on our platform or confirms their account, we consider it as their consent for us saving, storing and processing their children's personal data.

Fair information practices

We agree to the individual redress principle, which requires that individuals have a right to pursue legally enforceable rights against data collectors and processors who fail to adhere to the law. This principle requires not only that individuals have enforceable rights against data users, but also that individuals have recourse to courts or a government agency to investigate and/or prosecute non-compliance by data processors.

Collecting phones and e-mails

Unless you are considered a child and your parents hasn't given us a consent, we collect your phone and e-mail address in order to provide you with important information about our project. If at any time you would like to unsubscribe from receiving future E-mails, you can e-mail us at info@astonio.com or follow the unsubscribe link in any e-mail message you receive, and we will promptly remove you from ALL correspondence.

We also require users to enter their phone numbers for the purpose of authorisation unless other options for singing in are not available in your region.

Relevance

This privacy policy applies to all applications published under the Astonio Ltd publisher account unless another policy is not provided.

Contacting us

If there are any questions regarding this privacy policy you may contact us using the information below.
info@astonio.com

Last Edited on 25/11/2020